This includes a PowerPoint presentation for classroom use.

Who May Enter:

To enter, a student must attend a Wisconsin school and be in grades 3-12 this school year. Books must be entered at the student's current grade level.

Book Requirements:

Judges have the right to disqualify books that do not meet the requirements.

- The book must be written and illustrated by one student.
- The book should be an original fiction or an enhanced personal narrative piece with well-developed characters, setting, plot, etc. (Not poetry)
- Illustrations can be drawings, collages, computer art, paintings or original photographs and must be incorporated into the text. (Not just before or after the story.) Sources for downloaded or scanned artwork must be documented.
- Stories may be handwritten or typed & printed. Someone other than the author may do typing and editing. Make sure your book has been proofread for errors.
- Books should have an illustrated or designed cover, as well as a separate title page. Books should be securely bound. (If using plastic binders, please staple text before covering with binding strip).
- Books may not exceed the maximum number of words (count all words in the text of the story) for the author's grade level:

Grade	Maximum	Grade	Maximum
3	500 words	6 through 8	1,000 words
4 and 5	600 words	9 through 12	1,600 words

- Each entry must contain a separate Contest Information Page bound securely as the last page of the book or attached to the inside back cover. (A copy of this form can be found on the back of this information sheet.)

Bilingual Spanish Entry: The book must be written and illustrated by one student. It may be written so it contains both the Spanish and English languages. For example, a paragraph written in Spanish could be followed by the same content paragraph that is written in English. Additionally, a Bilingual Entry may include a mix of Spanish and English languages. The author's creativity may allow for both languages to be used together throughout the book. (For example, a character may speak Spanish at a particular setting and the book's narration may be in Spanish when the character is at a different setting.) Google Translation or other translators are not acceptable. Rather, students will be writing based on their knowledge of the Spanish and/or English languages. Entries may be Fiction or Enhanced Personal Narratives.

I have followed all the above rules. Yes No
