ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATE
MATTERS

Uselmann wished all teachers, staff, students, families, administrators, and community stakeholders a Happy Public Schools Week. Public schools are literally of, by and for the community. All children are welcomed, regardless of abilities, family backgrounds, identities, or class. The goal is to connect with and educate each and every student, preparing them to join our community as productive members. She added that public schools are accountable and transparent, as evidenced by the current open meeting where the public is allowed to speak and question, publicly accessible data and information is being shared, and the board is accountable to the community through elections.
